

Welcome to Huntcliff!

Congratulations on the purchase of your new home and welcome to Huntcliff! As part of the “Golden Triangle” you have found a great place to live in metropolitan Atlanta. Situated to the northeast of Atlanta—you are approximately one hour to the Georgia Mountains, about four hours to historic Savannah on the pristine Georgia Coast, and about 45 minutes from the urban heartbeat of Atlanta.

We are sure you will find our neighbors friendly and the area a great place to call home. After you get settled a bit, there are probably a lot of questions you have--don't hesitate to reach out to your neighbors for assistance or advice. You will find our neighbors to be from all parts of the country and the world, and always welcoming to new neighbors. The neighborhood prides itself on well-kept homes, festive holiday lights, and keeping an eye out for each other in times of need. We encourage you to sign up for our NextDoor and Facebook social media pages to stay in touch with what is happening.

A list of Gwinnett County services is provided for you to know where to turn for various county services. Huntcliff is part of unincorporated Gwinnett County. The school system here is one of the nation's best. Our local schools are Jackson Elementary, Northbrook Middle School, and lions of Peachtree Ridge High School. In addition to the relatively new Georgia Gwinnett College nearby, the University of Georgia (UGA) is about 45 minutes away in Athens, Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech) and Georgia State University are in downtown Atlanta, and Kennesaw State is about one hour away in Marietta.

To find out more about our neighborhood, drop the HRHA board of directors a line for more information.
